

GRAHAM SAVAGE

Representing the MPFL

THE 'SAV'

What a marvellous player was Graham Savage. 'Sav' possessed a wonderful physique for football and he took full advantage of that by adopting a demanding personal fitness program which extended beyond that being entertained by other players.

Accepting the key role of centre-half-forward, 'Sav' was constantly on the move enabling star full-forward Dave Baker plenty of space in which to move. Both players were capable of scoring from distance and between them they provided opposition defences with enormous headaches as they endeavoured to curtail the duo.

A mark of 'Sav's' standing in MPFL ranks was his automatic inclusion in interleague teams during this golden period in Chelsea's history.

A peninsula best and fairest winner, 'Sav' was seemingly marked harshly by the locals who appeared to have unreasonably high expectations of this wonderful player.
